

For Immediate Release

February 9th, 2012

Contact: Joy Ward, Marketing and Special Events Manager

jward@museumofflying.com

310-752-0541

Museum of Flying Files Flight Plan -- Cleared for Takeoff!
Ribbon Cutting/Grand Opening February 25th at 10:00 am

Santa Monica, California

The Museum of Flying announced today that a ribbon-cutting ceremony and grand opening to the public will take place on Saturday, February 25th at 10:00 am.

The Museum will offer $5 admission for everyone (children 5 and under are free) and special giveaways awarded by random drawing for visitors who arrive throughout the day. Visitors are encouraged to arrive at the Museum on the hour. Last ticketed entry is at 4:00 pm.

Featuring extensive exhibits and displays on the history of the Douglas Aircraft Company and the Santa Monica Airport, the Museum also preserves and curates a number of static and flyable aircraft.

Other displays at the Museum highlight the pioneering aviation companies of Southern California including Boeing, Hughes Aircraft, Lockheed, North American, and Northrop.

The Museum also features a hands-on interactive area for children, a theatre for screening historic test footage, documentaries, and aviation related films, and an outdoor aircraft display plaza.

Regular hours are Friday through Sunday from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm. Admission prices are $10 for adults, $8 for seniors and students (with ID), and $6 for children ages 6 to 12. Children ages 5 and under are free. The Museum of Flying is a non-profit 501(c)(3) California corporation.

The Museum is located at 3100 Airport Avenue on the south side of the historic Santa Monica Airport.